Work Plan Sharing Protocol

To support implementation after each professional development days, the teachers and instructional partners develop a work plan. At the next professional development, each person will reflect on the implementation that supported learning.

The first professional development day was on communication with team members. If you have a work plan from Oct 4th, please bring your work plan. If not think about these, topics:

In three minutes, how might you respond to one or two of these prompts:

- The way, I communicate best with the teacher /instructional partner is
- When I have a ‘burning issue’ from a child, or a parent, I share
- I know / communicate what to do during center time, by. . .
- When the teacher is absent know what is expected of me, because
- I know / communicate what to do when there is specific behavior problem, by . . .
- Non-verbal communication that works for our teaching team is
- The teacher shares the curriculum (Building Blocks and OWL) by

After each person has had the opportunity to speak about communication that works in their classroom, we will seek to find the common threads that have worked in multiple classrooms.
