

Explore the activity through these lenses:

Consider this activity in terms of a proactive approach to social-emotional literacy.

1. Identify how this activity can build social / emotional learning
2. Generate adult vocabulary and language prompts to support the activity
3. How might this activity be used to engage children in conversation, problem solving, and enhance emotional vocabulary?
4. How might you extend this activity/content throughout the day?
5. How might this be used or shared with families?
6. Develop a plan to sell this activity to your peers. (5 minutes to present to the group)